

Harnett Area Shag Association (HASA)

"A little soul, a little sand, take a partner by the hand!"

June 2014 NEWSLETTER

FROM HASA PRESIDENT:

DJ David Sessoms played your favorite music on Friday night, May 9th. David kept the dancing going all night! A BIG THANK YOU to Sheryl Jackson who served baked spaghetti and salad, which was enjoyed by all! Thanks to everyone that brought appetizers and desserts. Thank you to all the volunteers that helped with the party set-up, working the door, the 50/50 raffle and the clean up.

For our next party on Friday, June 13th, DJ Bob Stroud with 1170am~Boogie Shoes Radio Network in Clinton (each and every Saturday from 12:00 noon to 5:00pm) will be playing your favorite tunes to Shag, Cha-Cha or "Smooth" dance to! Bob will be taking your requests too! We will be serving finger foods and ham, chicken salad and pimento cheese sandwiches, along with various salads. It would be greatly appreciated if you would bring an appetizer, salad or dessert to compliment this meal. This will be the first party of the "summer season", so you will want to come out for it and get that great summer-time feeling!

You still have the opportunity to JOIN or RENEW your membership at the June party. Membership/renewal is only $25.00 + you get in free the night you join! Admission is $5.00 for existing members; $7.00 for non-members. You can print the attached membership form or go online to our website at www.hasadance.com to download a form – complete now and take with you to the June 13th party.

I welcome any ideas, suggestions or comments that will help HASA become even better, increase membership and charity donations - please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your supporting
